Disclosure

I understand that the limits of confidentiality, however, include that by law I must immediately report to the appropriate civil authorities (through Volunteer Recruiter) any involvement that the client may have in regard to child abuse, confession of a felony (serious property or physical injury) offense, the intention to do bodily harm to another person, or the intention to commit suicide.

I understand that this is an application for and not a commitment or promise of a volunteer opportunity.

I certify that I have and will provide information throughout the selection process, including on this application form and in interviews with Empower Youth International that is true, correct and complete to the best of my knowledge. I certify that I have and will answer all questions to the best of my ability and that I have not and will not withhold any information that would unfavourably affect my volunteer application. I understand that information contained on my application will be verified by Empower Youth International. I understand that misrepresentations or omissions may prevent me from becoming or continuing as a volunteer with Empower Youth International.
